Esta tabela relaciona as leis, portarias e instrumentos internacionais citados no livro. Os atos suíços aparecem com a designação utilizada no texto, a abreviatura alemã e o número SR da Fedlex sob o qual o texto consolidado é publicado. As leis de Singapura aparecem com o título abreviado oficial (short title) constante do Singapore Statutes Online, onde cada Act é publicado sob esse título abreviado e o ano de sua promulgação. A última coluna indica os dispositivos mais relevantes para ativos digitais e remete à parte do livro em que são analisados.

Os números SR suíços seguem a classificação da Fedlex. São eles o Payment Services Act 2019, o Securities and Futures Act 2001, o Financial Services and Markets Act 2022, a lei de confisco de benefícios de 1992, o IRDA e o Variable Capital Companies Act 2018.[1]

Desde a edição revisada de 2020, Singapura cita cada Act com o ano de sua promulgação original e sem os antigos números de capítulo. O livro segue essa convenção em todo o texto, inclusive nas tabelas abaixo. As portarias suíças são relacionadas separadamente das leis que regulamentam, pois o profissional muitas vezes precisa consultar ao mesmo tempo o artigo da portaria e o artigo da lei. A Lei DLT de 25 de setembro de 2020 não é uma lei autônoma. Como alterou dez leis federais, seus dispositivos estão relacionados sob as leis que hoje os contêm.[2]
